To Write Your Absent Friends is Well; To Talk With Them Is Better--- Telephone!

---

FRIENDSHIP is the spice of life—a spice of which it is difficult to get too much.

So you wish to foster the new friendship you made while on vacation.

Visits are perhaps the best means of maintaining friendship; but taste and necessity call men in so many different directions that visits are not always possible.

Letter writing is another method; but letter writing, like much study, is a weariness of the flesh, and, besides, has just about had its day as a means of developing friendship.

But, although visiting and correspondence may not come to its aid, friendship need not wilt.

The Telephone affords a method of keeping friendship warm, as effective and much less costly than visiting, and much more effective and infinitely less irksome than letter writing.

Half a dozen words or so from you to "Long Distance" enable you in a few minutes to indulge in a talk with your friend as untrammelled and intimate as if you were face-to-face with him.

Friendship flourishes on Telephone Talks.

EVERY MAN INTENDS TO MAKE A WILL

But when one feels fit and eager for the day's work, can make the ninth hole in four and help carry a canoe around a three-mile portage, it's hard to contemplate the idea of a WILL with any seriousness.

That's why so many men die without a will.

That's why so many a comfortable little fortune is wasted in legal tangles.

That's why so much property gets into hands for which it was never intended.

Every man has rather decided views about the disposition of the wealth that he has created and saved. And he can enforce his wishes by a carefully drawn will and a wise choice of an executor. He can choose no executor who will administer his estate more prudently and faithfully than

A Good Living
A Profitable Future
A Provision for Old Age

THE Canada Life Assurance Company has a District in the Province of Ontario, offering these opportunities.

There is a certain man, with no Life Insurance experience, with whom we desire to get in touch; likely a very promising business man between twenty-five and forty-five years of age, who realizes the limitations across his path of opportunity, and whose abilities require greater outlook and earning capacity.

Such a man may want to make a move, but hesitates to "take a plunge."

There is a better way: The Canada Life will undertake to thoroughly educate him for the life insurance business, which has been growing and will grow as has no other business, a business which offers permanent success, does not fluctuate, is a professional occupation and has been truly named "The best paid hard work in the world."

This is done by close contact, a correspondence course and personal assistance, free of charge.

The first two booklets of the course will be sent to anyone interested. All correspondence strictly confidential.
