

Contributors

W. K. THOMAS

Professor of English at the University of Waterloo; author of Form and Substance: A Guide to the Research Paper (Toronto, 1963).

PERCIVAL PRICE

Professor of Campanology and University Carillonneur at the University of Michigan; appointed Carillonneur of the Massey Memorial Carillon in Toronto in 1922, and the first Dominion Carillonneur at the Houses of Parliament, Ottawa, in 1927.

NEAL B. HOUSTON

Associate Professor of English at Angelo State College, San Angelo, Texas; contributor to literary and educational periodicals.

RUTH HAFTER

Graduate student in History at Dalhousie University; co-author of a report on the Acadians for the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism.

ALFRED CISMARU

Chairman and Associate Professor in the Department of Modern Languages, Saint Michael's College, Winooski, Vermont; author of articles in several American literary periodicals.

JUDITH DUNDAS

A graduate of the University of Toronto, formerly Assistant Professor of English at the University of Oregon; now doing postgraduate work in the history of art at Harvard University.

WILLIAM BAUM

Formerly of the Department of Political Science at the Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska; now Assistant Professor at Grand Valley State College, Allendale, Michigan.

RENE BEAUCHESNE

Professor of Political Science and Chairman of the Department, the Creighton University.

ANNE BRYANT

Of the Political Research Center at the Creighton University.

THOMAS SAUNDERS

Literary Editor of the Winnipeg Free Press; author of the following books of verse: Scrub Oak (1949), Something of a Young World's Dying (1958), Devil and Cal McCabe (1959).

Contributors

EVELYN J. BROY

Of Riverside, Ontario; free-lance writer of articles and poems.

VERSE

RICHARD EMIL BRAUN, of Edmonton; GEOFFREY JOHNSON, of Broadstone, Dorset, England; ALICE MACKENZIE SWAIM, of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania.

REVIEW ARTICLE

WILLARD F. BARBER, Professor of Politics and Government in the University of Maryland; formerly with the U. S. State Department in several South American posts; in 1964-65 Mershon Visiting Professor in the Ohio State University.