THE DALHOUSIE REVIEW

TWENTY years of Belles Lettres, independent Literary Criticism, and lively Comment on Politics and Affairs! The fact that the DALHOUSIE REVIEW has accomplished this, without endowment, without support from any sort of interest, and in such decades as we have just lived through, is a testimony to the wisdom of its sponsors, and not least to its editor; but a testimony much more to the need for such a publication in the life and thought of its subscribers in Canada, the United States, Great Britain and other countries.

To these subscribers, during twenty years, the DALHOUSIE REVIEW records its gratitude.

We need, to carry on securely, some more subscribers. We should be pleased to have many more subscribers. The REVIEW is, obviously, not a profit-making publication. At more than one period the question was, rather, "Can we continue?" A few hundred more subscriptions, now, will give us security. A larger number would be a great encouragement, and would enable us to compensate contributing writers more adequately.

If you are already a subscriber, why not send the DALHOUSIE REVIEW for a year to a friend? You can do him that favour for $1.50.

The same special rate, $1.50, is offered as an inducement to all new subscribers. (P. O. orders, or cheques, at par, Halifax, Canada) No postal charges.

Regular cost $2.00 per annum, $5.00 per triennium.

Happy New Year!

CARLETON STANLEY,
Chairman, Editorial Board.
