

London August 29 1791

Dear Madam this with my kind Compliments to let you know that I am but in a poore state of health and growing very frail and can do very little or nothing for my self and the long trouble that your Uncle was in before is death and at that time which I have not as yet Recovered and at this present time I am like to be put to trouble about it and having still some hops of getting sum money from Mr Junwick to Release my self My Request at this time urgant that you will be so kind as make a Insant trial of him and so if you can Recover any money from him for it would at this present time would do me a very great favor so I hope that you will do all that you can ^{in this request} to help me in my present Distraction I did Deal with Mr Dixon and he did very Sincerely and is Creditors is paying on ^{me} for thare money and mine is about 500^l which I do not intend to let Mr White know any thing about it if I can Release my self any other way so please to do what you can in the above Request and ^{please} write me in two weeks is so saying you will much oblige your Affet^d Cousin
