

Proceedings and Transactions of the Nova Scotian Institute of Science
Volume 3 Part 4

Proceedings	339-340
List of members	341-342
Orthogoriscus Mola. Couch. Taken Halifax Harbor, Oct., 1873 – J. Bernard Gilpin	343-344
Nova Scotian geology. Intercolonial Railway – Rev. D. Honeyman	345-356
Sketch of the carboniferous district of St. George’s Bay, Newfoundland – Edwin Gilpin ...	357-364
On Canadian species of Rubi and their geographical distribution – Geroge Lawson	364-366
The fibrin of the blood—its constitution and functions as explained by Dr. Charles Girard of Paris – A. Ross	367-369
Canadian weather telegraphy and storm signals – Fred. Allison	370-376
On the seals of Nova Scotia – J. Bernard Gilpin	377-384
Nova Scotian geology – Rev. D. Honeyman	385-393
Meteorology 1873, Halifax, N. S. – Fred. Allison	394-400
Observations on some fossil bones found in New Brunswick, Dominion of Canada – J. Bernard Gilpin	400-404
Agriculture allied to chemistry – A. P. Reid	404-410
Evolution – Angus Ross	410-435
Chemical relations of heat. With experiments – Professor Lawson	436-438
(Appendix) Conversazione – H.	439-440
Index to volume III	441-442