

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

W. E. HART.

Of London, England. Military correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, who has spent much time studying Middle-Eastern problems on the spot.

ELISE AYLEN.

Pen-name of Mrs. Duncan Campbell Scott, Ottawa.

DESMOND PACEY.

Professor of English, University of Manitoba.

OTTO STRASSER.

The celebrated German anti-Nazi exile, now resident in Canada. Author of Hitler and I, and many other books on the Nazi situation.

I. NORMAN SMITH.

Managing editor of the Ottawa Journal.

RUTH I. MCKENZIE.

Of Toronto. A constant student and writer in the field of Canadian literary history.

MAXWELL VESEY

Mrs. A. E. Vesey, of St. Stephen, N. B.

J. F. B. LIVESAY.

Late General Manager of the Canadian Press. The paper "Achill Island" was found among his unpublished literary remains, and is contributed to the REVIEW by Mrs. Livesay.

GEORGE DAVID STEWART.

The late Dr. G. D. Stewart. A Nova Scotian who became highly distinguished as a surgeon in New York.

R. W. COLLINS.

Professor of History, University of Alberta.

DAVID EARLE LEWIS.

Of Bridgetown, N. S.

C. I. GLICKSBERG.

Journalist, New York.

MARIUS BARBEAU.

Ethnologist and Folklorist, National Museum of Canada, Ottawa.