Vol. I The Young Politician

Vol. II The Old Chieftain

By Donald Creighton

Now in paperback . . . the magnificent two-volume biography that brought fresh vitality and excitement to the writing of Canadian history. "A Canadian masterpiece . . . This is history on the grand scale, more fascinating and improbable than fiction." Bruce Hutchison.

BREBEUF AND HIS BRETHREN

Paperback $1.95

By E. J. Pratt Re-issue

No prose history of the Jesuit martyrdom in seventeenth-century Huronia can match the fire and beauty in E. J. Pratt's well-known epic, now available again in a separate edition.

POETRY OF OUR TIME

Paperback $2.95

Edited and introduced by Louis Dudek

A major contribution to the understanding of twentieth-century poetry . . . Louis Dudek argues that the "obscure" of modern verse is more a failure of the reader than of the poet. His comprehensive anthology supporting this view, with a special Canadian section, shows the true form and nature of poetry today.

EXSULTATE, JUBILATE

$4.25

By Richard Outram

The diversity of our lives now is celebrated in Richard Outram's moving and exciting poetry. His material comes mainly from the worlds of magic, religion, and myth. The mood of the collection is remarkable in range, shifting easily from irony to passion, and from humour to sensual reflection.
