

Lloyd's Coffeehouse 16 May 1866

W. W.

In my last I informed you so much of my situation, as I thought expedient, previous to an interview, & at present cannot say more, but shall be glad to see you on the business, when matters may be fully explained, & I think better understood than can be by any other means - I believe — may be the worst you may not suppose that you risk nothing by a conference with one of so mature an age is the object, can only say that if my Heart approves the Lady, Courage of Resolution will not be wanting - I am hopes of hearing from you soon I remain your Obedt. Servt.
