

Contributors

MICHAEL COLLIE

Formerly Assistant Professor of English, University of Manitoba; at present working in France and England on a translation of Laforgue's Derniers Vers.

ROBERT F. EDDISON

Of London, England; formerly visiting lecturer at McGill University.

ARTHUR GARRATT DORLAND

Formerly Professor and Head of the Department of History, University of Western Ontario; author of Our Canada, A History (1949), and other historical works.

RONALD S. BERMAN

Assistant Professor of English, Columbia University; author of articles on Shakespeare in university quarterlies; at present preparing for publication a book on seventeenth-century literature.

ROBIN W. WINKS

Associate Professor of History, Yale University, and adviser in Canadian Literature to the Yale University Library; author of Canada and the United States: The Civil War Years (1960).

D. C. MASTERS

Professor and Head of the Department of History, Bishop's University; author of A Short History of Canada (1958) and Canada in World Affairs, 1953-1955 (1959).

DOLORES BEDINGFIELD

Lecturer in English, Carleton University.

MARTIN S. DWORKIN

Professional writer, critic, and photographer; editorial consultant on theatre and mass media; visiting lecturer at Teachers College, Columbia University.

VERSE

WILLIAM CORRINGTON, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; GEOFFREY JOHNSON, of Broadstone, Dorset, England; DOUGLAS LOCHHEAD, of Toronto, Ontario.