

Proceedings and Transactions of the Nova Scotian Institute of Science
Volume 1 Part 1

Inaugural Address - P.C. Hill	1-4
On the common herring (Clupea elongata) - J. Bernard Gilpin	4-11
Nocturnal life of animals in the forest - Campbell Hardy	11-19
Some recent movements of the earth's surface - Thomas Belt	19-30
On the characteristic fossils of different coal seams in Nova Scotia - Henry S. Poole	30-45
Contributions to the ichthyology of Nova Scotia - J. Matthew Jones	45-54
Gold and its separation from other minerals - Abraham Gesner	54-60
The festival of the dead - R.G. Haliburton	61-85
On magnesia-alum, or pickerinigte, containing a little nickel and cobalt, occurring in slate in Hants Co. - Henry How	85-87
Notice of the occurrence of a trilobite in the lower carboniferous limestone of Hants Co. - Henry How	87-88
On the occurrence of Littorina littorea on the coast of Nova Scotia - John R. Willis	88-90