

CONTRIBUTORS

CARLYLE KING

Head of the Department of English, University of Saskatchewan; editor of Saskatchewan Harvest (1955) and author of many articles.

T. G. MACKENZIE

Graduate of Dalhousie whose work as a consulting engineer has taken him to many parts of the world. In May, 1957, he received an honorary LL.D. from Dalhousie.

PHYLLIS R. BLAKELEY

Assistant Archivist for Nova Scotia; author of textbooks and articles on Canadian, particularly Nova Scotian, history.

R. D. MACKERNESS

Lecturer in English, University of Sheffield.

J. S. ERSKINE

Biologist, naturalist, and author of Wolfville, Nova Scotia.

PAUL WEST

British poet and critic whose verse has appeared in Quarto, World Review, Mermaid, and Poetry from Oxford.

STEBELTON H. NULLE

Associate Professor in the Department of Humanities, Michigan State University. Author of The Political Career of Thomas Pelham-Holles, Duke of Newcastle (1931) and co-author (with H. H. Kimber) of Readings in the History of Civilization (1949).

LAWRENCE P. SPINGARN

Writer, editor, and teacher of English now living in North Hollywood.