

Remember the Carriage in fear I did in the 18th century The Coach shop at the Blue Bell

There was not time to wrap the boxes so that the carriage is not fear — We took the boxes to Grace Church street and it was gone on this day we were obliged to collect after the coach in a hackney coach to a house over Mortimer's bridge when it stops but there was no time for wrapping the boxes nor could they be taken there

London
The fine from the
of the 18th century

Mr. Sedgwick
20th April 1772

Dear Sir

It was four o'clock before Mr Wood came home & I am uncertain whether ~~the~~ ~~engine~~ ~~is~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~sent~~ we will have time to pack up the engine to night or not you may depend upon its being sent off to ~~the~~ tomorrow. Mr Woomer was not at home yesterday nor till to morning

There were only five ^{pieces} of Almanach left of the last I paid ~~the~~ price - ~~the~~ ~~one~~ of 7/6 for Almanach. ~~the~~ ~~one~~ ~~of~~ ~~7/6~~ ~~for~~ ~~Almanach~~ ~~the~~ ~~one~~ ~~of~~ ~~7/6~~ ~~for~~ ~~Almanach~~ I returned 16/6 for the Carriage for the three pieces and Portage I suppose will be about 2/5 shillings - Per God if it is possible send Mr Money as you promised on Saturday. I shall be extravagantly thank my self if I don't receive yours before Wednesday next. I expect to see you on the morning -

Respectfully
Yours
The Wood
A letter from Mr Hoare wth Sir M... are in the old time then was not time to receive a letter be... I wish you would make such an excuse for Sir... afford him... I...

The... may be...
I...