

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

---

SIR HENRY HADOW.

Vice-Chancellor of the University of Sheffield. Long conspicuous for his advocacy of a place for music in British education.

G. E. R. GEDYE.

Resident in Vienna. Formerly correspondent for Central Europe of the London Times.

SIR PATRICK McGRATH.

President of the Legislative Council of Newfoundland. Since 1894, Newfoundland correspondent of the London Times.

GEORGE HANSON.

Rev. George Hanson, formerly minister of Crescent Church, Montreal; now of Emperor's Gate Presbyterian Church, London, England.

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF.

Chairman of the Civil Service Commission of the City of Philadelphia. Editor of The National Municipal Review.

FLORENCE BEATRICE TAYLOR.

Of London, Ontario. Author of many pieces of verse in literary magazines, and of a book of poems entitled White Winds of Dawn.

M. JOSEPHINE SHANNON.

Assistant-Librarian, Dalhousie University.

A. M. MANTELL.

Colonel Mantell, of Bath, England.

G. S. HOLMESTED.

K. C. Of Osgoode Hall. Author of many treatises on law.

RAYMOND KNISTER.

Of Toronto. A frequent contributor to literary and historical magazines on subjects of Canadian interest.

THE HON. WILLIAM GARVIE.

The late Mr. Garvie studied law in the Inns of Court, and practised his profession in Halifax in the early seventies of last century. He was a member of the House of Assembly, and was editor of the Halifax Evening Citizen. His speeches and writings have a fine literary flavour.

VICTOR PERRIN SEARY.

Of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. Now on the staff of the Nova Scotia Department of Education.

JAMES A. BENTLEY.

Professor of English in the University of Saskatoon.