

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

---

HERMANN RAUSCHNING.

Formerly President of Senate of the Free City of Danzig. Now among the German exiles who are supplying to British and American readers invaluable interpretation, based on intimate knowledge, of the Nazi system against which they are in revolt.

EDWARD A. McCOURT.

Professor of English, University of New Brunswick.

CHRYST LOUKAS.

New York. Executive Director of the "American-Hellenic Student Committee for Medical Aid to Greece."

DIANA SKALA.

Of Toronto.

GRACE HELEN MOWAT

Of St. Andrew's, N. B.

H. L. STEWART.

Professor of Philosophy, Dalhousie University.

C. F. FRASER.

Editor of the Halifax Chronicle.

J. W. LOGAN.

Lecturer in Classics, Dalhousie University.

---

OTTO STRASSER.

Leader of the Free German Movement. A German exile serving tirelessly and most effectively the anti-Nazi cause on this continent.

DONALD COWIE.

Of Malvern, England.

SISTER MAURA.

Professor of English, Mount Saint Vincent College.

ARTHUR GAUNT.

Of Bradford, England. Keenly interested in comparative geography.

G. G. SEDGEWICK.

Professor of English, University of British Columbia.

A. D. FRASER.

Professor of Archaeology, University of Virginia.

F. W. GRAY.

Assistant General Manager, Dominion Steel and Coal