Give Hours of Reading Pleasure As Your Christmas Gift

A GIFT subscription to the Dalhousie Review, Nova Scotia's premier literary magazine, will keep your Christmas wishes warm all the year through. It is a bit of fine Nova Scotiana which will be keenly appreciated by Dalhousians and Nova Scotians both at home and abroad.

In order to introduce the Dalhousie Review to as many new subscribers as possible a special price of $2.00 per year is being offered for a limited time only. Regular price is $3.00.

An attractive Christmas card will be sent to the recipient of each gift subscription. Please send your gift order to us as soon as possible, so that cards may be mailed in plenty of time for Christmas. Use this sheet as a convenient order form—space for additional names is provided on the back of it.

NEW BOOKS

Mr. C. Frederick Fraser, under whose editorship this quarterly has been published during his years as a member of the staff of Dalhousie University, has accepted an appointment in Montreal and has found it necessary to relinquish the editorial chair. The Directors have appointed Mr. W. Graham Allen as Editor of The Review and Dr. Allan R. Bevan as Assistant Editor. Mr. Allen is Director of University Liaison for Dalhousie, and Dr. Bevan is Assistant Professor of English. This is the first issue of The Review produced by the new editors, who invite the continued goodwill and support of The Review's friends everywhere.

HERBERT LESLIE STEWART

1882-1953

It is with profound regret that The Dalhousie Review records the death in Halifax on September 19, 1953, of Herbert Leslie Stewart, M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C. Dr. Stewart, Founder and for many years Editor of The Review, was a well-known contributor to this and to many other publications. A man of great scholarship, perceptive observation, and skilled literary craftsmanship, he was widely known and respected as an author and radio commentator.

At Dalhousie University, where he taught for so many years, as George Munro Professor of Philosophy, he will be greatly missed, but he will also be missed by hundreds of former students, and by many who knew him only through his writings and broadcasts.
