

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

- CHARLES RYLE FAY. M. A. (Cantab.), D. Sc. (London). Professor of Economic History, University of Toronto. Fellow and Lecturer, Christ's College, Cambridge, 1908-1921. Senior Proctor, University of Cambridge, 1920-21. Captain, Machine Gun Corps, 1915-16. Author of Co-operation at Home and Abroad, Life and Labour in the Nineteenth Century, etc.
- A. STANLEY WALKER. M. A. (Leeds and Birmingham). King's Professor of History, Dalhousie University. Formerly Lecturer in Economics for the "National Alliance of Employers and Employed" under the Extension Scheme of the University of Liverpool. Has contributed magazine articles on historical and economic subjects to History, Proceedings of the British Numismatic Society, etc.
- STEPHEN LUCIUS GWYNN. A brilliant Irish man of letters, who has published many books and articles on general literary subjects. M. P. for Galway City, 1906-1918. Served in the Great War (Captain) with the Connaught Rangers. Legion of Honour.
- GEORGE SCOTT. The Rev. George Scott, of St. John, New Brunswick. Has published a volume of poems.
- JOHN FERGUSON SNELL. Ph. D. (Cornell). Professor of Chemistry, Macdonald College, P. Q. Formerly Assistant Professor of Chemistry, University of Cincinnati. Author of various textbooks and of numerous contributions to scientific journals.
- GEORGE HANSON. M. A., D. D. Minister of Erskine Church, Montreal. Formerly Minister of Marylebone Presbyterian Church, London. Sometime Myrtle Lecturer in the University of Aberdeen, and President of the Metropolitan Federation of Free Churches. Author of books and articles on theological and religious subjects.
- JOHN HANLON MITCHELL. A graduate of Dalhousie, now living in New York, and a constant contributor of both prose and verse to American magazines.
- JOHN PLUMMER DERWENT LLWYD. D. D., D. C. L. Dean of Nova Scotia. Formerly Vice-Provost of Trinity College, Toronto. A frequent contributor of articles on subjects of literary criticism to American and Canadian magazines.
- SIR PATRICK MCGRATH. President of the Legislative Council of Newfoundland. Managing Director and Editor of The Evening Herald. Since 1894 has been Newfoundland correspondent of the London Times. Sir Patrick McGrath has filled many offices of public importance in his native colony, and is exceptionally qualified to speak of its prospects. He has been a prolific writer for the press on both sides of the Atlantic regarding Newfoundland matters.
- ALEXANDER DAVID FRASER. M. A. (Johns Hopkins). Formerly Lecturer on Archaeology in Jamestown College, North Dakota. Author of many articles and reviews in The Classical Journal, Classical Philology, The New York Times Book Review, etc.