

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

J. E. B. MCCREADY. Editor of The Charlottetown Guardian. A veteran Canadian journalist, still in active work. Mr. McCready was present in the press gallery at the first sitting of the Dominion parliament after Confederation.

ALBERT G. MACKINNON. Minister and representative in Rome of the United Free Church of Scotland. Brother of Principal Clarence MacKinnon, of the United Church Theological College, Halifax.

LOUISE MOREY BOWMAN. Of Montreal. Author of the well-known volumes of verse entitled Moonlight and Common Day and Dream Tapestries.

A. H. U. COLQUHOUN. Deputy Minister of Education, Ontario.

E. E. PRINCE. Of Ottawa. Dominion Commissioner of Fisheries, and Chairman of the Biological Board of Canada.

JUANITA O'CONNOR. Of Halifax, N. S. A young Canadian poet of promise, whose work has won increasing recognition in late years.

J. L. MCDUGALL. Instructor in History and Economics, University of Toronto.

MARY E. FLETCHER. Of Halifax, N. S. An enthusiast for travel, and specially interested in Italian scenes.

F. LANDON. A member of the History Department, University of Western Ontario. Professor Landon has made special study of the Abolition movement in the United States.

ARCHIBALD MACMECHAN. Professor of English Literature, Dalhousie University, and a constant contributor to historical magazines on Canadian subjects.

A. GORDON MELVIN. Professor of Psychology and Education at Boone University, Wuchang (capital of the Cantonese Government in China).

B. K. SANDWELL. Of Montreal. Formerly Professor of English Literature in Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario.

ALBERT G. NICHOLLS. Professor of Pathology, Dalhousie University.