Provide for Succession Duties with Life Insurance

SUCCESSION DUTIES, payable to both Provincial and Dominion Governments are the first call on your estate at death.

You can prevent inconvenience to your dependents by providing for this in your Will by a special life insurance policy. Otherwise the untimely disposal of assets may be necessary, sometimes at considerable loss.

We shall be glad to show you, in collaboration with your insurance agent, how this important provision can be arranged in your Will. Ask for consultation.

TO ALL TELEPHONE USERS

KEEP THIS IN MIND

*Every Time
You Telephone*

The more you cut down your telephone conversations to just necessary talk, the better you are helping to win the war.

Long conversations and unnecessary calls help tie up trunk lines that may be needed for urgent messages in war production or defence activities.

Telephone workers throughout Canada, faced with a heavily increased demand for telephone service, are doing their best to provide for vital war-time communication.

Are you helping too?

Thrift GIVES CANADA WINGS

What can you do to provide the planes, to train and equip our airmen for battle

You can provide the money, by watching every penny you spend, by saving all you can. Personal thrift is vitally necessary now. Every dollar you can spare is needed for Canada's war effort. Honor your pledge to invest in War Savings Certificates regularly. Build up your savings account. Set aside a little each month to meet the war taxes which must be paid. We have a job on our hands. Let's finish it.

► This book will help you save.

CAN YOUR ESTATE PLANS BE IMPROVED?

It is always good practice to review wills and trust agreements periodically. The changes which so frequently are made in the rate and application of taxes, and present economic conditions require more than usual attention to these important instruments.

Rearrangement of estate plans can result in savings in inheritance, estate and income taxes. Gifts in trust may effect substantial tax reduction even after payment of gift tax.

The practical advice of our officers is often helpful in planning estates and we should be glad to put our organization, with its long experience in investments and in the human relationship of trusts, at your service. We shall welcome a conference with you or with your family lawyer. This may be arranged at any of our offices, or at your office or home, without obligation.
