

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

- THE HON. LIONEL CHEVRIER, is President of The St. Lawrence Seaway Authority and was formerly Minister of Transport in the Government of Canada.
- R. STANLEY CUMMING, is William A. Black Professor of Commerce at Dalhousie University.
- Dr. GARNET T. PAGE, of Ottawa, is General Manager and Secretary of the Chemical Institute of Canada.
- T. G. MACKENZIE, of Halifax, is a native of River John who received his M.A. and B.E. degrees from Dalhousie before embarking on a career which took him to many parts of the world. He has mined submarine iron ore in Newfoundland, submarine coal in Cape Breton, and silver-lead ores in Mexico. He managed hydroelectric undertakings in Mexico, where he became acquainted with the famous bandit Panco Villa, directed cement and hydroelectric operations in British India, and light and power companies in Brazil, Argentina, and Chile, where he negotiated with Getulio Vargas and Juan Domingo Peron. Before his retirement he was engaged in consulting work in New York City.
- EILEEN CAMERON HENRY, of Antigonish, is a graduate of Dalhousie whose verse has appeared in several Canadian publications.
- WILLIAM ROSS CLARK, is a graduate of Dalhousie and now Assistant Professor of English at the University of Connecticut.
- EVELYN M. RICHARDSON, is the wife of the lightkeeper on Bon Portage Island. Her books We Keep a Light and Desired Haven have won national awards. Several of her shorter pieces appeared in The Dalhousie Review.
- GEORGE H. MURPHY, M.D., of Halifax, Emeritus Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery, Dalhousie University, and former Nova Scotia Minister of Health, has been a dedicated student of Shakespeare for many years and from his studies has produced a number of works on Shakespeare, some of which have appeared in The Dalhousie Review.
- V. L. O. CHIDDICK, of Seattle, is well known in literary circles, especially as an authority on the works of Thomas Chandler Haliburton.
- A. J. CROCKETT, of Hopewell, has spent most of his working life in Pictou County, including twenty-nine years as Judge of the Juvenile Court. He has written numerous articles on social welfare problems and on local history.
- ALDEN A. NOWLAN, of Hartland, N. B., has published verse in The Fiddlehead, the Queen's Quarterly and other magazines.
- WILLIS EBERMAN, of Portland, Oregon, has published verse in magazines in Canada, the United States, England, and Ceylon.