Dr. E. B. Howell, '40, has moved from Scotsburn to Pictou. He plans to devote a part of his time to the Scotsburn part of his practice.

The many friends of Dr. C. L. Gosse, '39, will be pleased to learn that he has been awarded a Senior Fellowship in Surgery at Cleveland.

---

It is regretted that ill health still prevents Dr. K. G. Mahabir '16, from resuming his practice. He is at present living at Hantsport.

---

Dr. R. A. Moreash, Dal '31, has recently joined the ranks of proud and happy fathers.

One of the busiest men in Nova Scotia this winter is Dr. A. R. Morton, '25, who as Health Officer for the City of Halifax has been contending with epidemics of Diphtheria, Cerebro-spinal Meningitis, and Measles. The presence of such large Military and Naval Units in the city has materially added to the problem. Dr. Morton is to be congratulated on his efforts to meet a particularly difficult situation.

---

Dr. A. M. Siddall, Pubnico, '25, after a long period of ill health is once more able to resume his practice.

---

Dr. Evelyn Rogers, Class '27, after completing a public health course at Johns Hopkins University, is now engaged by the State of New York and stationed at Oneonta.

---

The contribution made by this class of medicine to public health all over the world has been considerable. At one time or another members of it have been engaged in this work in the United States, Canada, Newfoundland, Africa, and the Philippines.

---

Captain Daniel M. Wood, '27, formerly of Limerick, Sask., is now with his Unit, Somewhere in England.

---

Recent word from England indicates that "Bob" MacLatchy, '26, is with His Majesty's Forces there.

Since the beginning of hostilities some 66 physicians resident and practicing in Nova Scotia have joined one of the branches of the Service. Many of these are graduates of Dalhousie. This represents a very fine contribution on the part of this Province.

The many friends of "Gordie" Lea, '38, will be glad to learn that he has returned to Halifax, after several years post-graduate work at the Royal Victoria Hospital. He is attached to the R.C.A.M.C. here.

Congratulations to Lieut. G. H. Murphy, R.C.A.M.C., '40, on the announcement of his forthcoming marriage to Miss Frances Martell, of Halifax.

---

"Doc" Roy, '38, is again in his native province, after two years at the Cleveland Clinic, where he did post-graduate work in Radiology. He is now Radiologist at the Halifax Infirmary, and at the Cogswell Street Hospital, Halifax.

---

"Every doctor, however popular, must from time to time suffer the mortification of losing patients. No one can please everybody, and as long as there is no hint of professional neglect, or lack of skill, the self-respect of the superseded need not be injured . . ."—E. Kaye LeFleming.

"For the general practitioner a well-used library is one of the few correctives of the premature senility which is so apt to overtake him.—Sir William Osler (Books and Men)

"Knowledge makes the physician, not the name or the school."—Paracelsus.

"More mistakes are made by not looking, than by not knowing."—Edward Jenner.
