In Memoriam: Tietje Zonnefeld

Born and raised in the Netherlands, Tietje -- always "Titi" -- took up a position in the piano studio at Dalhousie in 1975, and she was beloved by her students for her rigorous, tireless dedication to musical excellence. Even after her retirement in 2004, Titi continued to attend concerts, recitals, and repertoire classes, sharing her advice and insights with young pianists. No one could have been a more devoted teacher, and she continued to support music students with scholarships and the gift of a piano to the school. Her commitment and her passion for music and art were extraordinary, and her dedication to Dalhousie was unmatched. It is fitting that the last concert she attended was the Fountain School's Concerto Night on February 13 of this year.
