

ROYAL INSTITUTION.

June 18th, 1814.

IN pursuance of Art. 3. Chap. 1. of the Bye Laws, We the undersigned do hereby give notice, that We shall move at the next General Monthly Meeting, to be held on Monday the 4th of July next, that the following Bye Law be established.

THE Board of Managers have power to admit one hundred persons (not being resident within 40 miles of the Metropolis) to be "Associates of the Royal Institution," at a Subscription of Two Guineas a year each; such Associates being previously recommended by four Members or Associates, in the same manner as the Members of the Royal Institution are. The Associates, visiting the Metropolis, have a right of Admission into the Libraries and Reading Rooms, and on application to the Clerk, may have a Ticket of personal admission to any of the Lectures, under such regulations as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board of Managers. The Associates have a right of sending to the Institution any Specimen of Materials, or other substances, which they think may be useful in Manufactures or Agriculture, to be examined, and if necessary, analysed and reported upon, and their probable applications stated. All Associates shall have the right of adding the letters A. R. I. to their names.
