to Mr. W. J. W.

My Dear Sir

The receipt of your post of date the 20th Dec. together with Mr. S's of the same date has been looked over very far & systems of his money is had lately built - You would know that we had lately killed you both, and were killed you dead, and your names had been continued to account for the accident.

Theory 1. It was a judgement on them for the heavy loss of the Congress, off the whole instead of the half of the said just.

— Defeat by Army who says they were as well as the whole as to the half.

Theory 2. It was utterly owing to Mr. S's safety to take with him. He the black for said which Army had out on purpose for him. Some two days of the 1st Magazine which were questioning their mind in a narrow <sup>truly</sup> which you recalled you passed some short time before you arrived at the Standard - Finding you appear not so terrific as it otherwise might have determined to attack you. They proved victorious, and made a treaty <sup>thoroughly</sup> of you, besides leaving separate for lifting in the day following.

my own share

They not writing must have been entirely owing solely to their having had no opportunity of an voyage

There is still the thought of the fact

I am happy to hear that your old enemy has somewhat relaxed his fury. I hope he will soon leave you to the full enjoyment of health to prosecute justice and fame.

~~It may be your duty to depart at 5.~~

Thank for your fine description of the surroundings
I hope you keep a diary for the entertainment and and instruction of your friends.

Regulation and that

- Domestic -

It is written better - 48 P. 11 - Mark and by - a hand - some good copy - Two accounts
low and thick paper - the better by mistake in Paris months - ten must be paid. 100
