

The Proceedings and Transactions of the Nova Scotian Institute of Science

Volume 11 Part 3

Proceedings	xxxi-xxxviii
Pre-Cambrian volcanic bombs from near Lake Ainslie, Inverness. Co., N.S. – Henry S. Poole	339-346
Notes on the ore deposits of South Cheticamp, Cape Breton Island, N.S. – M.V. Gradin	347-360
Meteorological notes – F.W.W. Doane	361-372
Phenological observations in Nova Scotia and Canada, 1904 – A.H. MacKay	373-386
Edible wild plants of Nova Scotia – Walter H. Prest	387-416
Section of Carboniferous rocks in Cumberland County, Nova Scotia: (1) Detailed section of rocks from West Ragged Reef to the Joggins Mines and Minudie, -by Sir William E. Logan (republished); and (2) from Shulie to Spicer Cove, -by Hugh Fletcher, B.A. With introduction by H.S. Poole, D.Sc.	417
Introduction – Dr. H.S. Poole	417-419
West Ragged Reef to Minudie – Sir. W. Logan	419-499
Shulie to Spicer Cove – H. Fletcher	500-548
Contents	549-550
Supplementary note to a paper on “The sunken land of Bus.” – Henry S. Poole	551-552
(Appendix III) List of members, 1904-05	ix-xii