

The Proceedings of the Nova Scotian Institute of Science
Volume 22 Part 4

Hymenoptera and an inquiline moth reared from the Goldenrod gall caused by Gnorimoschema gallaesolidaginis Riley (Lepidoptera)
- W.W. Judd	1-7
Spongilla Nova Terrae Potts; A fresh water sponge new to Nova Scotia
- Muriel J. Ord and Anne H. G. Watts	8-14
A new record for the mastodon, Mastodon americanus Kerr, from Nova Scotia
- Daniel Livingstone	15-16
An increasing Atlantic influence in Hudson Bay
- W.T. Bailey and H. B. Hachey	17-33
The vertical temperature structure of the Labrador current
- B. Bailey and H.B. Hachey	34-40
The vertical temperature structure of the Labrador current [part 2]
- B. Bailey and H.B. Hachey	41-48
Presidential Address
- C.B. Weld	49-53
Proceedings of Meetings: Session of 1949-50	54-57
Abstracts	58-62
Index	63-68