
Call Number: MS-6-2

Additional Notes:

The document, endorsed March 17th, 1625, relates to "the countrie of New Scotland in America" and bears close relation to Cape Breton.

Morse purchased the documents in April, 1932 and March, 1934 from Bernard Quaritch Limited. The minute of condition came from the collection of Major Hugh Robert Duff of Muirtown. The document was donated to Dalhousie University in the 1930s.

A subsidiary document in original form relating to New Plymouth can also be found in Folder MS-6-2. The manuscript has been reproduced in facsimile and transcribed in Volume I of Acadiensia Nova, by William Inglis Morse (1935)

Document dimensions: 30x41.5 cm

This document is a digital facsimile of the materials described above. It was digitized on November 13th 2012.

The original materials and additional materials which have not been digitized can be found in the Dalhousie University Archives and Special Collections using the call number referenced above.

In most cases, copyright is held by Dalhousie University. Some materials may be in the public domain or have copyright held by another party. It is your responsibility to ensure that you use all library materials in accordance with the Copyright Act of Canada. Please contact the Copyright Office if you have questions about copyright, fair dealing, and the public domain.
This parcel of land between the river Leven and the river Clyde, belonging to the estate of the Comyns of Glencairn, is granted to William Alexander of Paisley, to hold it for the benefit of the church of Paisley and the benefactors thereof, with all the appurtenances thereof, for the duration of his life and the life of his heirs, and to be held as a perpetual grant to the said church and its successors.

The said grant is to be held under the terms and conditions specified in the charters and laws of the time, including the right of the church to receive tithes and other Benefits from the lands.

Witnesses: John Comyn, William Comyn, James Comyn.

[Signature] John Comyn.