I.S.S. PLANS FAVOR INTELLECTUAL AID IN PREFERENCE TO MATERIAL

No Broadcast of Collegiate Game

A last minute announcement by Finlay MacDonald, station manager of Radio Station C.J.C.H. late yesterday afternoon quashed reports that Dannie Gallivan and Don Loughnane, ace sports-casting team would broadcast the Dal-St. F.X. game tomorrow.

Earlier, Station Manager Finlay MacDonald had stated the game would be well worth broadcasting, especially in the light of the last meeting between the two clubs. The broadcast was to have replaced the program "Make-Believe Ballroom."

There is still a possibility that the playoffs, provided Dalhousie is in them, will be announced.

MRS. HAROLD CLARK

Challenge Issued At C.C.U.F. Meeting As Dr. Gillis Speaks On C.C.F. Critics

The Dalhousie CCUF Club issued a challenge to the other two political clubs on the campus to "discuss party policies at an open meeting" and announced its willingness to hold this "any place and at any time agreeable to them".

This challenge was uttered at a meeting of the CCUF held in the Arts Building Wednesday night to hear an address by Dr. H. Gillis, a professor of political science at St. F. X. Mr. Gillis spoke on "The CCF and its critics". He charged that voters were frightened away from the CCF by the older parties' threats to government employees and by political propaganda. He said that the older parties were carrying on a smear campaign "in order to pit one section of the population against the other". Criticizing the older parties he said "Freedom of choice is non-existent when the two candidates offered to the electorate do not differ in outlook and plans".

Dr. Gillis told of the growth of "Stalinism" since the war and of the attempts of the Liberals and Conservatives to associate the CCF with both Communism and National Socialism. He said that there were two different ideologies bearing the name Socialism. One was the agnostic and doctrinaire socialism of France while the other was the Anglo-Saxon socialism, "a blend of the Christianity of the British workingman, and of Fabianism."

Auditions Held For CJCH Today

Final campus auditions for the D-Day to be broadcast over CJCH March 7th, were held in the Physics Building last Tuesday.

Some twenty prospective announcers were auditioned, swelling the total to forty. The first group of twenty announcers were auditioned January 14th.

Of the forty, fifteen men and five girls will be auditioned again at CJCH by the Chief Announcer, Don Loughnane. The final selection will consist of five men and two girls.

Although announcing positions are more than filled by applications, there are still several script-writing posts to be filled. The Publicity Committee requests that anyone interested in this phase of radio activity report to Jack Wilcox as soon as possible.

Witches' Wailing Shatters Silence

Shortly before nine o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 9, the inhabitants of the Dalhousie Men's residence were distracted from their studies by a wierd, unmusical din. Windows flew open and anxious heads peered out to discover the source of this racket. A terrible spectacle met their eyes marching along the walk straight towards their building was a disorderly rabble consisting of Dal girls.

The paraders marched boldly around the Residence and formed a solid group on the road outside. The girls then commenced to sing, with untalented assistance from the windows above. Then they retraced their steps around the building and entered by the front door and paraded into the Men's Common Room. They seated themselves brazenly along the wall and began to sing again, one of the more talented of their number accompanying them on the piano. The lights mysteriously went out but were restored shortly afterwards.

"The International Student Service has now changed from a material relief organization to an intellectual relief organization," said Mrs. Harold Clark, travelling secretary of the I.S.S., at a reception held in her honor Sunday afternoon, at the Murray Homestead. At the gathering were members of the faculty, the student council and presidents of various societies on the campus.

Mrs. Clark outlined the program of the I.S.S. for 1949-1950, and said, regarding the four projects, "Every Canadian university has accepted the plans." The four projects are; (1) the D.P. Plan, which is to take one student from a D.P. Camp and bring him to Dalhousie. The University will waive tuition fees, and a committee will supply $300 for books and clothing. His room and board will be paid for, and transportation will be looked after by the International Relief Organization. The student will eventually become a Canadian citizen.

(2) Foreign Exchange Student, which means that a student will be chosen to study one year at a foreign college, and return.

(3) Relief Work, aided by a Dalhousie graduate, Mr. Ritchie, the Canadian Embassy at Paris, who will select students for relief.

(4) During the summer two Dal students will spend six to eight weeks in Holland, under the auspices of the I.S.S.

Mrs. Clark intends to visit the faculty and students of all Maritime universities in connection with the I.S.S. campaign which is scheduled for the first week in March. Of the $65,000 expected to be collected from Canadian universities, during the drive, $15,000 will be allotted to the Universities of Athens and Salonika for textbooks, scholarships and clothing, while a large part of the funds will be given to the General Fund for World Student Relief.

Blood Donor Clinic To Visit Dalhousie Campus

It has just been announced that a Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic will visit Dalhousie in the near future. Delta Gamma will be the sponsor of the clinic which will be held in the Dal Gym, February 23-24. This visit was arranged by the Student's Council.

Direct Transportation To Forum For Game

Transportation has been arranged for Dal students who wish to attend the Dal-St. F.X. hockey game Saturday. Four special tram cars will leave from the corner of South and Oxford Streets in front of Sheriff Hall between 1:30 and 1:45 p.m. These cars will proceed directly to the Forum where the game will be played. The usual fare will be charged.

It Happened To Atwood In 1931

Nov. 30, 1931.

To the Editor of the Dalhousie Gazette.

Dear Sir:—

In your issue of last week a contributor referred to me as Polar Pie Atwood. It is not my wish to voice a resentment of that reference, but rather to present a few figures that may interest your readers, and substantiate its aptness.

Last year the patrons of Dalhousie Store consumed 20,334 Polar Pies. If these were placed end to end, they would form a continuous line equal to a good walk before breakfast—almost one mile and a half long. If they were all made in one pie its weight would be 1,906 pounds.

As I said in the beginning I do not resent being called Polar Pie Atwood. However, there is one thing I wish distinctly understood with all due respect to Lester and his associates. I do not aspire to membership in the Old Foundation Moustache Club. Ipse dixit.

Very truly yours,
P. P. ATWOOD.

IT'S A LONG WAY TO SWITZERLAND

Bearing a caption "Be sure and submit these to the editor of your campus paper", a report entitled "International Student Service; Statement of Receipts and Disbursements For the Nine Months Ended Sept. 30, 1948", was received by Bernal Sawyer, local ISS chairman this week. Mr. Sawyer dutifully submitted the report to the Gazette. And the report was most interesting.

It listed total receipts from 28 Canadian Universities and Colleges as $40,233.47.

Under Disbursements, the chief item, and the first recorded, was $30,214.40 as "Transfer of Funds to Treasurer, World Student Relief, Geneva, Switzerland . . ." The remainder, $10,019.07, was expended on general expenses, or contained in "Excess of Receipts over disbursements."

In other words, three quarters of the money contributed to the I.S.S. National Campaign by University students was sent to Geneva, Switzerland. One eighth of total was spent on general expenses here, and one eighth remained on hand.

Now, to be called an "isolationist" is to be called a terrible thing. And no doubt, if one were to remark that "It's a long way to Switzerland", one would be branded as "Isolationist". Nevertheless, Bernal Sawyer has repeatedly stated that he could obtain no breakdown of expenditures by the World Student Relief organization. At the ISS conference at Toronto, which ended October 31, 1948, he was unable to get an answer to his question, "Where does our money go?"

He was able to find out that $30,214.40 was sent to Geneva, but that was the end. Where it went from there, nobody could, or would, say. That is what has been wrong with the International Students Service since its very inception. The students could not, and still cannot, see where their money goes nor could they really learn, beyond repeated assurances by headquarters, if it was doing any good. Certainly, if the money is going to countries behind the Iron Curtain it is doing no good. We cannot strengthen our defences in this ideological warfare by assisting students in Russian dominated countries.

It is a part of the ISS constitution, and always has been, that it acts in relief of students, "regardless of political beliefs, race or religion." On the surface that is certainly democratic. But our way of life is threatened by a political belief. You can ignore a bump on your foot—but when you find it is cancer, and slowly killing you, you don't encourage its growth. And certainly we cannot encourage the growth of Communism, for it is out to kill our present fairly satisfactory democratic system.

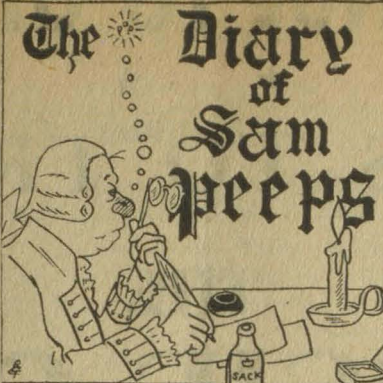

We can't go on blindly sending money to Europe, with no assurance that it is not being used against us. Apparently several delegates to the ISS National Conference agreed on this point. Several Canadian universities are going to use their ISS campaign funds to bring DP students and exchange students to Canadian universities.

In an ISS supplement in the Manitoban, the Minister of Education of that province says in part;

"Whoever first conceived the thought of Canadian university students bringing to Canada a number of DP students as well as exchange students from other countries struck an imaginative as well as responsive chord in the minds of organized Canadian university students." We agree.

The Dalhousie Council of Students, at Mr. Sawyer's suggestion, have agreed to use the funds raised in the Dalhousie ISS campaign to bring one DP and one student from a European university, to Dalhousie to study. The students will return to their own countries, to pass on what they have learned, when they complete their courses here.

At last we'll be able to see where our ISS dollar goes. There will be no mystery, such as has been caused by the long distance to Geneva. It is to be hoped that every student will contribute all he can to the ISS campaign at Dalhousie. Don't pass the buck—give it to ISS.

The Diary of Sam Peeps

Tuesday, Feb. 8—A man at my door today, demanding entrance. He is all a-panting with news from the school of engineering where there is a great scandal. He did say that one Gymnasium Less-daughter had been copying the drawings of one Jacques Linseed for to submit them to a professor. When the professor got there, all he did was glare, for Gym "scabbed" the name of Linseed. Being a glib-tongued rascal he talked his way out of a severe punishment by the minions of the law.

Much disturbed by this news of "scabbing" I resolved to return J. J. Freezer's notes on the Science of Politics to him.

Arriving at the Loseborough just on time to beat the "end-of-classes" rush, did hear that the soldiery had Note Naysnor in custody. He was apprehended while trying to launch a barge at His Majesty's Yachting Club on Lord's Day afternoon. Some say he was merely suffering from too much rehabilitation.

Reports reach me that Count Lessgen disappeared from a dancing party held by the "Awful Gams", in search of a rare bottle of sack which he had misplaced somewhere or other. Truthful Curse—He had a rare time there, too, it is told about the Inns.

Am resolved to pay no attention to reports that Milord Quaker Oats is out to do me harm for some unknown reason. Possibly he is mad, or stood in the moon too long.

My head whirling with reports that I am now famous—there being a great discussion of my attributes at Arcadia recently by a most learned man—Dr. All-Fired Blackhead—I to bed.

Wednesday, Feb. 9 — Spectator (early edition) on campus of college on the hill today. My wife has composed a poorly written bit of nonsense named after the style of my Diary, which I am disposed to ignore for it doth show she is ever a fool, as I have oft times thought.

The pharmacists of the college on the hill are much concerned over a story that Master F. Bateman has been denied access to Noman's Land because of his tipsy rowdery there after the great ball held by the Pharmacists.

Great talk today that the Duke of Urphart will nominate as a candidate for the President of the Parliament one Ronald Shoutmuch. Some say it should be the other way around.

What is all this about Showman Slicker and his spouse? They were most friendly on Friday and Sunday—but Saturday he was away and she was too, in a sense, I think.

So pleased with what was said about my music at Arcadia by Dr. All-Fired Blackhead, I am resigned to return to the practice of my glockenspiel, on which I can now play two tunes, like several aspirants to the Prime Ministership methinks. Sometimes I will play, and other times I will not.

I am pleased that only I can write this diary, for then I can put in it only what I want. My conscience which bothers me on occasion is very bad tonight. To bed with a headache.

Thursday, Feb. 10—My portrait done today for the yearly publication of the college on the hill, called, I think, the Spare-Us because the portraits are so bad. Am assured by Ripe Farcial that I shall look as handsome as usual, which is comforting. He is a good fellow.

Old Watch-em Kirkstalin is at it again, I see. All the Arcadians are aroused, and the Upper Canadians, to, over what he said or did not say. He says many things, methinks—some of which are right good sayings.

A Letter To The Editor

February 5, 1949.

Dal Gazette,
Dear Mr. Editor,

Having taken up much of your space recently I do not feel justified in asking you to print another letter from me. However, I feel obliged to reply to Mr. O'Neil's letter.

My apologies for stupidity and ignorance Mr. O'Neil. By enclosing the word "is" in parenthesis, my intent was to indicate the omission of words, not to misquote you.

From your column—"The Gazette is the publication of the students. It belongs to the students and the students are entitled to write letters or articles to express their views on any matters whether they are on the beam or not."

Is your column not an article? Are you too, not a student? Am I being too presumptuous by interpreting your words as meaning, "The Gazette (is) entitled etc."?

Neither have I any excuse for inadvertently omitting the quotation marks from the word "discretion". But I have not missed the point. The subtle distinction between the two words discretion and "discretion" is a nice one. The interpretation of the meaning is often a questionable one depending on one's outlook.

Again I would like to apologize Mr. O'Neil, but I don't think these inexcusable errors alter the general theme of my letter.

Junior Class

At the latest meeting of the Junior Class, the financial report of the Junior Prom was presented. The gist of the report showed that a poor turnout at the dance had put the class in debt to the sum of $150.00. From a body of over two hundred and fifty juniors in the university, only forty had the spirit to show up at the dance.

To cover the debt incurred, the Junior Class has received permission from the Business Office and the I.S.S. to obtain the caution deposits of the juniors at the year's end. That is IF the juniors are willing to part with the money.

The response to the form already published has been only average and the committee asks for more support from the Juniors. They have not been able to make up the deficit by any other means and they feel that it is the duty of all the juniors to help the cause.

Printed below is a form which every member of the class is expected to fill in and deposit in one of the many boxes around the campus.

I,,
do hereby sign my caution deposit for this year over to the Junior Class.

City of Edmonton Successful In Claim Against University

EDMONTON—(CUP)—A bill from the City of Edmonton submitted to the Student Council for damage done to the Clarke Stadium last Oct. 18 was approved. The Council at the last meeting revealed that the bill would be paid in full.

The paint slinging, allegedly done by Saskatchewan students did damage to the city estimated at $115.12. When the Student Council of the University of Saskatchewan was approached they flatly refused any help in the matter. Because of this attitude the University of Alberta has with drawn a bill for $90.23 for paint damage done to the campus.

A Letter From Buchans

Dr. A. E. Kerr, President,
Dalhousie University,
Halifax, N. S.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Buchans Social and Athletic Club, the Buchans Mining Company Limited, and personally I wish to extend to you our sincere thanks for allowing your hockey team to journey to Buchans for weekend games.

The people of this community are loud in their praise of the exemplary conduct, the playing ability, and sportsmanship shown by the whole team.

Their visit to Buchans has done more for hockey than anything heretofore and the hope is expressed that such visits will continue and will be a yearly event.

Will you please convey to Mr. McCormick, Physical Director, to the Coach and Manager of the team, as well as all those students who came here our hearty thanks. To the boys may we express the wish that their studies at Dalousie will be entirely successful.

Yours very truly,

GEO. G. THOMAS,

Committee Announces Final Plans For Munro Day; To Be Held Mar. 8

The plans for Munro Day, March 8, have been expanded within the last week and are going through the last stages of approval with the committee. The committee, under the chairmanship of Andy MacKay, has announced the rules for the nominating of the Munro Day Queen in a letter to the Faculties. The crowning of the Queen has always been one of the main features of the Day.

Last year the other big contest was the "Beard Contest", but it has been scrapped this year in favour of a quartet contest. This vocal battle will take place during the afternoon. Entries have already been forwarded to the committee.

After the show, the Munro Day Dance will be held, with all its original gusto, as that dance is the last social event of the season.

Bonesmen At Saskatchewan Use Zaniest Promotion Yet

SASKATOON, Feb. 1—(CUP)—Stunts may come and stunts may go, but those at the University of Saskatchewan will always remember the latest shenanigan as the wildest one yet. The Meds had to advertise their dance on the coming Friday night so they employed the services of "Big John".

For an on-the-spot sale of one ticket the buyers had the privilege of smashing one egg on his head. For a three ticket sale John offered his face as a proving ground for cafeteria pie. More than a dozen eggs and several pies were used on his countenance.

He also offered to swallow a live frog and to allow his hair to be burned off with a blow torch. At this point the obliging Law School produced a torch and offered extreme apologies for not having a frog. After due consideration it was agreed that his face might suffer a slight lifting, so the legal eagles had to be satisfied with the hair from the heads of thirty med students. They even offered $100 to pay for the privilege of being barbers.

At the dance it was agreed that thirty die-hards will submit to the clipping. Arrangements are underway to provide a "smash-up bit" of entertainment.

By the end of the evening, it was very crowded under the tables, not to find the source, but the source of the source.

The Campus Roundup

by Windy O'Neill

Last Saturday night, the citizens of Antigonish witnessed the biggest upset in years in the Intercollegiate Hockey League when Dalhousie's erstwhile Timid Tigers beat St. F.X. into submission right on their own ice cube. It has been a contentious subject ever since the start of the school year whether Dalhousie should be represented in hockey competition this year, because of a new regulation put in by the MIAU which seemed to drippe our effort beyond a reasonable attempt. This same regulation caused the other two Halifax College entries to disband.

Even as close as two weeks ago after the Tigers returned from their disastrous Newfoundland trip, the Managing Committee of the DAAC held a final meeting to determine the advisability of going through with Intercollegiate plans. One can imagine the apprehension of this dauntless band as they left the Gym last Saturday morn, and their disappointment took the Xaverians completely by surprise and Dalhousie beat that aggregation the first time since 1921.

One doesn't have to know much about hockey to realize the relative disadvantages under which this year's Tigers are competing, and if they don't win another game all year (which is highly unlikely), the season has been a success. There should be a hundred per cent turnout of the student body tomorrow to spur the boys along the road to the Intercollegiate championship. And, I suppose we were wrong—we don't need the rink after all.

We were highly amused by the Glee Club's production of "George Washington Slept Here"—apparently Kaufman and Hart never heard of the Gym rules. The play ended up with so many bottles on the stage it looked like Munro Day and some lines were so risque that several freshettes stood up and cheered, which is a very good sign, indeed.

We admire the audacity of those who choose this particular effort but have grave suspicions of their diplomacy. However, the most difficult thing about Glee Club production is choosing from the realms of our present day dramatic tripe, a play suitable for a student production. Kaufman and Hart's works are usually the cheapest and easiest to portray, in that, the locale of the action is generally confined to one place, leaving a minimum of cost and effort in regard to scenery.

The meat of the above authors' plays is always concentrated in the repartee and it requires a skillful thespian to get full value from it or it seems utterly out of place. In the "Man Who Came To Dinner" the DGDS was fortunate in having an actor the calibre of Lloyd Soper and rendered that production a success. The Glee Club was again fortunate, this year, in having such talent as Art Hartling, Holly Flemming, Ken Phelps and Marg Goode who again did reasonable justice to this fugitive from a ban in Boston—and among the laurels we must not forget the effort of Patty MacKinnon who did a creditable job as Little Raymond, a tough part for a girl.

On the whole, students and outsiders, with the exception of the ultra-sensitive thoroughly enjoyed the play. The audiences were held completely from beginning to end and their responses were spontaneous. It is our opinion that the Dalhousie Glee and Dramatic Society takes a back seat to no other group, of its kind, in the country.

Dal Girls' Teams Each Lose A Game

Dalhousie girls' basketball squads suffered setbacks in mid-week games. Tuesday the Varsity team lost to Q.E.H. Grads in a regular City League fixture. The Co-eds shooting and passing was erratic and as a result they lost to their smoother opponents 19-7.

Wednesday at the gym the second team lost an exhibition contest to Liverpool, 29-18. The Dal gals rallied in the second half and were nosed out by a mere two points.

The Dal line-ups — Varsity — Doane, Doull, 3; Landrigan, 4; Cousins; Parker, Calp; MacLeod. Dal 2—Lohnes, 9; Quigley, 7; Pigot, 2; Bowers; Rosenfeld; MacKay; Merrick; Grant Sutherland.

The Dal Junior Tigers chalked up their fourth consecutive victory in junior ranks Wednesday night as they walloped the Wanderers A.A.C. quitted to the tune of 84-29 and set somewhat of a high scoring record for the gym while doing it.

The Tigers were a little slow in opening up in the first period and at one time only carried a lead of five points. Wanderers tried to play a slow careful game and were satisfied to hang on to the ball as long as they could. Nevertheless Dal led 26-14 at the end of the half.

The second half was by far the better played by the Tigers for they racked up fifty-eight points, nineteen of them in the final two minutes of play, Earl Smith was the man of the hour as he accounted seventeen of these points which made his total for the game, twenty-six. Jim Mahon was next with twenty-one points. Three men Colquhoun of Dal and MacConnell and Rogers of Wanderers were forced to retire from the game because of fouls.

Dal line-up: Mahon, 21; Colquhoun, 8; Smith, 26; Robertson, 11; Henderson, 10; MacKay, 3; Drysdale, 3; McCurdy; Ells, 2; Reid.

Determined to avenge the narrow defeat suffered at the hands of the Axettes, the Dal girl cagers will take the floor against them once again in the second game of a home and home total point series tomorrow at one o'clock. Although Dal will be without the services of one of their best players, Pat Snuggs, they will have Betty Petrie back with them. Should Dal win this game with enough points to overcome their first defeat they will advance to the Maritime playoffs against the New Brunswick champions—either Mt. A. or U.N.B. There's no doubt but that it will be an exciting game. Don't forget tomorrow—1 p.m. at the gym.

There's to be a Dal badminton tournament Feb. 14 and 15—all girls interested are urged to enter. By the way, there's a freshette, Joanne Beaubien, who's going to be worth watching. Last weekend in the Halifax City and County Badminton Tournament she won the consolation ladies' singles championship. Considering she hasn't been playing any length of time and that she was up against strong players, Joanne did very well.

Bliss Leslie, Dalhousie's outstanding goalie, one of the mainstays of this year's Varsity puckchasers, played a great game for the Tigers at St. F. X. kicking out a good forty shots-on-goal.

Dal Plays Host To Acadia Gals, "X" Puck-, Hoop-,men

Saturday is a big day for Dal in Intercollegiate circles as Varsity hockey and hoop squads meet St. F. X., and the girls' Varsity basketball team meets Acadia.

At 1 p.m. at the gym the Tigresses take on the Axettes in the second game of a home and home series for the provincial Intercollegiate title. Last Saturday at Acadia the Dal co-eds lost a close game, 18-16. Pat Snuggs will probably be out for the rest of the season, but Betty Petrie, who missed the first game will be back at guard.

University Badminton Tournament

The University Badminton Open Tournament gets underway at the gym next Monday, Feb. 14. All events (Men's Singles and Doubles, Mixed Doubles, Ladies' Singles and Doubles) will be played Monday and the following Wednesday, Feb. 16. The outcome of these Dalhousie championships will have a definite bearing on the choice of the Varsity team for Intercollegiate play.

Boys' entries will be accepted up to Monday noon, Feb. 14, and may be given to the Badminton Manager, Les Paige, or left in the Physical Director's office (if locked, slip under door). Entries should include name, events, and telephone number.

Girls entering should post their names on the list on the D.G.A.C. bulletin board.

At 2 p.m. at the Forum the Varsity Tigers will take the ice against Father McKeena's highly-rated Xaverians. Last weekend the Dal team won its first game in many years on Antigonish ice, beating the X men 9-7. If they continue to play the same rugged, heads-up type of hockey they will be very hard to stop. Bliss Leslie, who played a terrific game a week ago, will be in the Dal nets and Jamie Anglin, Clem Beaton, and George Mattison will again patrol the blue line. Coach Vince Ferguson will use forwards Ken Reardon, Bob Knickle, Bob Adamson, the big guns last week, and Willie White, Bill Brown, George McLanders, Yves Robichaud, Dave Boswell, and Doug MacKay.

At 8 p.m. Varsity hoopsters tackle St. F. X. Last Saturday the Antigonish boys, with height and experience on their side, easily outclassed the Dal team. On the bigger, more familiar floor here the Tigers should show to better advantage.
