

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

---

- STEPHEN GWYNN.—A distinguished Irish man of letters. M. P. for Galway City, 1906-1918. Author of many studies of French life. Awarded Legion of Honour in the Great War.
- C. R. FAY.—Professor of Economic History, University of Toronto. Senior Proctor, University of Cambridge, 1920-21.
- LEONID BREITFUSS.—Of Berlin. Dr. Breitfuss is a recognised authority on Arctic matters in Germany, and he is one of the editors of the new international magazine called Arktis, of which Nansen is Editor-in-Chief. The translation of his article here published is by Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Anderson, of Ottawa.
- E. W. NICHOLS.—Professor of Classics, Dalhousie University.
- CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF.—Chairman of Civil Service Commission of the city of Philadelphia. Editor of The National Municipal Review.
- F. BEATRICE TAYLOR.—Of London, Ontario. Author of many pieces of verse in literary magazines.
- C. H. CAHAN.—M. P. for St. Lawrence—St. George Division of Montreal. A well known and effective publicist on questions of Canadian policy.
- M. SCHACHT.—Of Digby Co. A Nova Scotian writer, whose verse has been warmly appreciated.
- J. BARTLET BREBNER.—A native of Toronto, and now on the teaching staff of Columbia University, New York. Particularly interested in the history of Eastern Canada, on which he is the author of an important monograph, New England's Outpost.
- A. H. MOORE.—President of King's College. Resided for many years in Quebec, where he became much interested in French-Canadian life and history.
- M. JOSEPHINE SHANNON.—Assistant-Librarian, Dalhousie University.
- O. TANDBERG.—Of Mechanic Falls, Maine. Norwegian by birth, but long resident on this side, where he has contributed much to American and Canadian publications.
- CARLETON W. STANLEY.—Professor of Greek in McGill University, Montreal. Educated at Oxford, and at one time on the staff of The Manchester Guardian.