

You Should Visit NOVA SCOTIA

The Land of Evangeline and Canada's Ocean Playground

CLIMATE:

You will enjoy a Summer in which the mercury rarely rises above eighty degrees in the shade at high noon. Cool nights will bring sleep and new life.

SCENERY:

You will find almost endless varieties of scenic beauties and the loveliest shore scenery on the Atlantic Coast of America.

SPORT:

You may enjoy golf, canoeing, boating, yachting, surf bathing, tennis, baseball, bird shooting, moose hunting, salmon and trout fishing and deep-sea fishing—no waters reserved.

ROADS:

You will discover more than 2,000 miles of improved seaside motor roads through a succession of scenic panoramas.

HISTORIC SITES:

Your imagination will be captured by Halifax with its ancient buildings; Annapolis Royal, the oldest town north of the Gulf of Mexico; Louisbourg, captured by New Englanders; and Grand Pre, scene of Longfellow's "Evangeline".

ACCOMMODATION:

You will be given the hand of welcome at modern and comfortable hotels, woodland camps and hospitable country homes with savoury cheer.
