

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

F. WILHELM SOLLMANN.

Secretary of the Interior in the Government of the German Republic (under the premiership of Stresemann) 1923. As journalist in the Rhineland, controlling a chain of newspapers, Dr. Sollmann had been in frequent conflict with the policies of the Empire under William II, and he was one of the German delegates to Versailles in 1919. An exile from Germany since 1933. Now resident in Pennsylvania.

GORDON SKILLING.

Professor of Political Science, University of Wisconsin. His article in this issue of the REVIEW is based upon data he collected in the service of the British Broadcasting Corporation.

F. A. CARMAN.

Well known Canadian journalist, now resident in Ottawa.

J. R. MALLORY.

Professor of Political Science, University of Saskatchewan.

NORMA E. SMITH.

Secretary, Nova Scotia College of Art.

GERALDINE P. DILLA.

Professor of English, University of Kansas, ~~Missouri~~ Kansas, Missouri.

THOMAS SAUNDERS.

Of Holland, Manitoba.

F. SEDLICKY.

Nom-de-plume of a highly competent Czech publicist who, for reasons which seem to the Editor adequate, prefers to write anonymously.

MARGARET MURRAY GIBB.

Warden of the French Residence, Queen's University.

EDMUND G. BERRY.

Professor of Classics, University of Manitoba.

JOHN CAMERON.

Formerly Professor of Anatomy, Dalhousie University. Now resident in Bournemouth, England.

CHARLES H. JOHNSON.

The Rev. Chas. H. Johnson, Grand Pre, N. S.

ESTHER CLARK WRIGHT.

Mrs. C. P. Wright, now resident in Fredericton.

CYRIL CLEMENS.

Webster Groves, Missouri. Nephew of Mark Twain.

ELISE AYLEN.

Of Ottawa. Nom-de-plume of Mrs. Duncan Campbell Scott.