Please Follow These “War-time Telephone Tactics”

1. Be sure you have the right number . . . consult your directory.
2. Be brief—on a telephone system loaded with war-time messages, long talks are out for the duration.
3. Answer your telephone promptly when the bell rings.
4. Use the off-peak hours for all calls. Do your telephoning before 9.30 a.m., between 1 and 2 p.m., from 5 to 7 p.m., and after 9 p.m.

Your telephone is part of a vast interlocking system now carrying a tremendous war-time load. Your adoption of the above “War-time Telephone Tactics” will help to win the war.

Established 1832—Over a Century of Service

One thing we can't do without . . .

How do people feel—what do they do when they are suddenly deprived of their newspaper.

New York's recent experience when a strike of the Newspaper and Mail Delivery Union made millions of that city suddenly newspaperless for 3 days, offers a pretty good answer.

By tens of thousands—men and women, young and old, in fur coats or in patched trousers, swarmed to newspaper offices hoping to get there, the papers they could find nowhere else. They stayed in line in freezing weather on the chance of getting their copies from a small token supply. Newspaper switchboards were swamped with calls from people who wanted the news.

The Halifax Chronicle and Halifax Daily Star

With their vigorous editorials, splendid news coverage and wealth of features, also have been demonstrating their indispensable services to the individual, the community and the nation. So well in fact, that they have attracted wide recognition as
