

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. FERDINAND VANDRY, distinguished Canadian scholar, author and educationist, Rector of Laval University, Quebec City, Quebec. * * * P. C. ARMSTRONG, Economic Consultant to the Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, and prominent writer on economic problems. * * * PHYLLIS R. BLAKELEY, M.A., graduate of Dalhousie University, presently research assistant, Public Archives of Nova Scotia, Halifax; author of Glimpses of Halifax from 1867-1900 and The Story of Nova Scotia. * * * ARTHUR S. BOURINOT, editor of The Canadian Poetry Magazine, Ottawa; Fellow of The Royal Society (Literature) London, England; winner of the Governor General's Award for poetry, 1939; author of twenty-three published books and brochures of verse. * * * MADGE MACBETH (Mrs. Charles Macbeth) of Ottawa; author of numerous books and short stories and frequent contributor to The Dalhousie Review. * * * CONSTANCE TOMKINSON, daughter of the late Rev. Harold Tomkinson, who held many charges throughout the Maritime Provinces, and Grace Tomkinson, novelist, whose contributions have frequently appeared in The Dalhousie Review; Miss Tomkinson studied drama at the Neighbourhood Play House, New York, and has since achieved outstanding stage successes in New York, London and elsewhere; prior to assuming her present post as Secretary to "The Old Vic", London, Miss Tomkinson who, in private life is Mrs. Hugh Weeks, was Secretary of the Sadler's Wells Ballet Company. * * * H. SCOTT GORDON, graduate of Dalhousie University, former lecturer at McGill and presently Assistant Professor of Economics at Carlton College, Ottawa; Mr. Gordon served for a time as economist with the Department of Fisheries, Ottawa, and during the last three summers has been associated with the Fisheries Prices Support Board on the Atlantic coast. * * * SHEILA BARBOUR, young Canadian poet of outstanding promise who passed away at the age of twenty-three in 1943 in her native city of Winnipeg; much of her verse was published during her lifetime in The Canadian Poetry Magazine, Saturday Night and other publications; The Lasting is published for the first time in The Dalhousie Review through the courtesy of the author's sister, Mrs. N. W. Holbein, of Ottawa. * * * JULIEN L. TONDRIAU, of Brussels, Belgium, writer and lecturer on Oriental studies and former Canada-Unesco Fellow. * * * HUMFREY MICHELL, graduate of the University of Manitoba and of Oxford University, Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, past President of the Canadian Political Science Association and for many years Professor of Political Economy at McMaster University, Hamilton; presently residing at Lennoxville, Quebec.