

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

---

CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS.—The famous Canadian author, cousin of the late Bliss Carman of whom he writes.

N. A. BENSON.—Of Toronto. Author of two volumes of verse.

R. K. GORDON.—Professor of English, University of Alberta.

G. B. PHELAN.—Professor of Philosophy, St. Michael's College, University of Toronto.

G. P. INSH.—Of Edinburgh, Scotland. Much interested in Scottish national history and antiquities, as well as in the fortunes of the Scot abroad.

R. A. MACKAY.—Professor of Government, Dalhousie University.

ARMAND LAVERGNE.—Of Quebec. Known in all circles of French Canadian journalism.

EDGAR MCINNIS.—Of Toronto. A frequent contributor of verse to literary magazines.

ADA MACLEOD.—Mrs. Neil Macleod, of Summerside, Prince Edward Island. Her earlier articles on Island history will be remembered by readers of the REVIEW.

THE HON. MR. JUSTICE RIDDELL.—Judge of the Supreme Court of Ontario.

C. R. FAY.—Professor of Economics, University of Toronto.

P. L. MUSCHAMP.—Trained in Swiss Schools. A successful teacher of modern languages in Halifax.

W. KIRKCONNELL.—Professor of English Language and Literature, Wesley College, Winnipeg.