

Contributors

JAN S. PRYBYLA

Associate Professor of Economics, Pennsylvania State University; author of various articles on China and the U.S.S.R.; at present writing a book on comparative economic systems.

S. PETER REGENSTREIF

Assistant Professor of Political Science and Canadian Studies, the University of Rochester; at present writing books on Canadian voting behaviour and the Canadian political system.

L. L. GRAELLE

The pen-name of a young Canadian painter and free-lance writer who is now living in the U.S.A. and Mexico.

PETER FRIEDMAN

Graduate of Harvard Law School and member of the Bar of the State of New York; studied East German law in Berlin on a Fulbright grant in 1961-62.

BRIAN G. COOPER

Lecturer in Liberal Studies, Department of Languages and Social Science, Lanchester College of Technology, Coventry, England.

GERALD POPIEL

Formerly of the Department of Sociology, Pratt Institute; member discussion panel of Radio Free Europe, 1963-64; now on a fellowship at School for Social Research.

J. LLOYD MUIR

Formerly Assistant Curator, the New Brunswick Museum; at present pursuing graduate study in Canadian history.

KENNETH HAMILTON

Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology, United College, Winnipeg; author of The Protestant Way (1956) and The System and the Gospel: A Critique of Paul Tillich (1963); a frequent contributor to literary and theological reviews.

SHORT STORY

Rhoda Elizabeth Playfair, of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

VERSE

John Cowles, of Boston, Mass.; Janet Lloyd, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.; Nancy-Lou Patterson, of Waterloo, Ont.

REVIEW ARTICLE

Roy Daniells, Head of the Department of English, University of British Columbia.

For your future inquire about an

EDUCATION LOAN

CANADIAN IMPERIAL
BANK OF COMMERCE

WILD CAPTIVES

by Donald G. Dodds Illustrated by Ronald Andrews

A collection of wildlife studies showing in dramatic detail how animals of the Canadian wilderness live, and how they die. This is an authentic discovery of the life-cycles of wild creatures under natural conditions. The author is Associate Professor of Wildlife Biology at Acadia University, Wolfville.

March, $3.95

PEACE, ORDER AND GOOD GOVERNMENT: A New Constitution for Canada

by Peter J. T. O Hearn

In this valuable book, Mr. O Hearn, a prominent Halifax lawyer and former Crown Prosecutor for Nova Scotia, sets out detailed proposals for a modern and workable new Canadian constitution. It is a thought-provoking document, specially prepared to answer the political problems of our times.

$6.50

THE ROAD ACROSS CANADA

by Edward McCourt With line drawings by John Hall

The personal story of a journey along the Trans-Canada Highway, from St. John's, Newfoundland, to Victoria, British Columbia, with considerable detail on Nova Scotian sights and history. Edward McCourt interweaves travel information and comment to produce a vividly entertaining portrait of Canada today.

March, $4.95

A BARONIAL HOUSEHOLD OF THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY

by Margaret Wade Labarge

Miss Labarge's new book describes the day-to-day life in the household of Eleanor de Montfort, Countess of Leicester, during a period of seven months in the year 1265. Rich in information from many sources, it constitutes a masterly re-creation of medieval customs and behaviour. By the author of Simon de Montfort.

March, $5.50

MACMILLAN OF CANADA