

Contributors

ROBERT W. SELLEN

Chairman, Department of History, Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas.

C. L. BENNET

Professor Emeritus of English, Dalhousie University, and formerly Vice-President of the University; co-author of The Face of Canada (1959); editor of the Dalhousie Review.

C. S. BURCHILL

Professor of History, Royal Roads, B.C.

D. J. DOOLEY

Associate Professor of English, St. Michael's College, University of Toronto.

ISOBEL ENGLISH

Of London, England; author of short stories and novels, among which are Every Eye (1959) and Four Voices (1961).

M. OWEN LEE

Assistant Professor of Classics, St. Michael's College, University of Toronto.

GEORGE A. RAWLYK

Assistant Professor of History, Dalhousie University; at present writing a study of the capture of Louisbourg in 1745.

VERSE

Alice Mackenzie Swaim of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania; Lilian Symons of London, Ontario; C. M. MacInnes of Bristol, England.

REVIEW ARTICLE

Bernard Ostry, of Ottawa; author of Research in the Humanities and in the Social Sciences in Canada (1962) and co-author of The Age of Mackenzie King: The Rise of the Leader (1955).