

Selanna One

When I was the moon
— I had contacts
and
the clout that comes from knowing everybody's business

— I saw
(but won't bore you
with the details)
everything:

but

my vision is not what it used to be

now

someone else is taking a turn as the moon

(just the same
it would be as well
not to look me in the eye,

I have another turn coming).
