Worry Lines

lately
my worries have turned
towards your body
lean and lethargic
    fuelled by questions
    distracted by everything
mirrored
in your sudden bursts
of suicidal wanderings
through cold winter streams broken
    by thoughts of stepping stones last minute decisions
and recent battle scars

perhaps you will eat
a little now
