Letters to the Editor

Montreal Gothic

I enjoy the Bulletin, being a native of Montreal the March 1987 issue was particularly interesting, with the generously illustrated article by my friend Robert Lemire, I knew most of the buildings, it was like a visit home. There hasn't been an issue that wasn't a pleasure to receive.

Evelyn McMann
Vancouver

Editor's Note:

Funding has been received for a Quebec issue of the Bulletin in 1988. All persons interested in contributing should contact the editor.

Maritime Issue

I must compliment you on the newsletter, I think it is much improved since the changes made in 1985 and it has become a superior publication. Do you think there is any need for a section where we can ask or answer questions, a sort of editorial page or queries column as in the COPAR newsletter.

I hope you plan another Maritime issue in the next year or so the last was not as substantial a one as I should have liked.

Can you suggest to whom I should write to make suggestions for sessions at next years conference. I should like to see a meeting of the S.S.A.C. tackle the question of copyright of architectural plans and drawings, evaluation in house and by N.A.A.B., the dealers viewpoint. We cannot look at all these items in one year but we could have session over the next three or four years.

Gary D. Shutlak
Map/Architectural Archivist
Public Archives, Nova Scotia.

Editor's Note:

Your suggestion for another Maritime Issue is well founded and should you be able to gather together some contributors this theme issue could be considered. The Vice President, Stuart Lazear should be contacted with regard to conference topics.
