

FORBES, DEANNA

IN MEMORIAM

We regret to inform the university community of the death of Deanna Forbes.

Deanna Forbes, 63, Lakeside, passed away with her loving family by her side on Tuesday, May 8, 2007, in QEII Health Sciences Centre.

Born in Halifax, she was a daughter of the late Robert and Lillian (Brown) Dean. She was employed for many years at Dalhousie University where she was given the honour of being the first woman in the history of the university to carry the mace at convocation. She was known for her kindheartedness and always being there for others. Deanna was blessed with many, many friends who loved her dearly.

She is survived by her loving husband of 27 years, Wayne; sons, John Muise (Terry), Windsor, Ont.; Peter Muise (Margie), Dartmouth; daughter, Lorraine Huston (Michael), Timberlea; grandchildren, Jennifer, Sarah, and Dillon; great-grandchild, Matthew; sister, Linda (Fred) DeBaie, Dartmouth; several nieces and nephews. Deanna was predeceased by her sister, Colleen.

Funeral service will take place Friday, May 11, at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church, Timberlea, with Father Richards officiating. Cremation has taken place under the care of Donald K. Walker Funeral Directors Ltd., Dartmouth (469-5601). Donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society or Huntington Society of Canada.
